Megan Williams   Software Developer

(718) 473-7979   cyrusface@gmail.com

Objective

Highly motivated, team player with excellent interpersonal skills and keen attention to detail, seeking a position as a Software Developer/Engineer.

Education

Hunter College – Bachelor of Arts in Computer Science:
Graduated January 2019. GPA 3.45

Technical Skills and Tools

Proficient in LAMP stack, creating MVC Web Applications and REST Web services using; PHP, SQL, C++ CGI, JSON, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, jQuery, Linux bash shell and PERL. Proficient using MySQL Workbench for data modeling, Apache web server, GIT source code control, Bootstrap component library and EntityObjects ORM tool.

Experience

MetaQueue, LLC 2014 - Present   Apprentice Developer

Working with the principle engineer, tasked with data modeling, and PHP development for client and internal projects including the websites for EntityObjects.com and ThePeoplesJukebox.com

Personal Projects 2014 - Present

LibDixie – a C++ library containing Abstract Data Types and support for console applications, command line utilities and a web CGI framework. ThatDixie.com – a website built using LAMP and CGI & a custom CMS. The Peoples Jukebox – a hunter college capstone project built using a LAMP stack, EntityObjects ORM and Bootstrap component library – implementing a MVC Web Application and REST Web Service API.

New York City Service Industry 2005 - Present

Worked 14 years as a Manager and Bartender

References Available Upon Request